

CHILD PROTECTIVE SERVICES DECLARATION

For Members of the "Shield of Souls" Assembly

Declaration and Notice of Denouncement of Authority

We, the undersigned Assembly Members of the Shield of Souls, hereby formally denounce and rebut the purported authority and jurisdiction of any entity known as Child Protective Services (CPS) or its agents, officers, or affiliates. CPS is part of the corporate construct of the United States and/or federal government, entities which are, in our understanding and conviction, outside our private structure and assembly. As such, CPS holds no authority, jurisdiction, or power over our members, our families, or our lives. They are subordinate to their club and have no lawful standing within our Assembly or among living souls who claim and know their unalienable rights.

Cease and Desist: No Voluntary Engagement or Consent

We hereby make it unequivocally clear that we do not contract with, nor consent to the presence, questioning, or interference of CPS or related agencies in our private affairs. Any accidental, apparent, or mistaken implication of consent—whether through words or actions—does not constitute actual consent. All rights are reserved, waiving none, even under potential misrepresentation or lack of legal sophistication. Members unfamiliar with specific legal or procedural traps remain protected by this Declaration.

Challenges to CPS Legitimacy and Practices

It is further noted that CPS agents often operate without actual or sufficient evidence, or are deployed as tools for harassment against those unaware of their basic rights. We stand informed and resolute; attempts to use CPS as a weapon for personal vendettas or bureaucratic overreach will be met with immediate and uncompromising opposition.

Let it also be stated: under their own statutory scheme, CPS cannot lawfully remove children from families unless all other remedies have first been honestly and exhaustively pursued—a threshold that is virtually never met. Any action contrary to this is both unlawful and actionable.

Conclusion and Statement of Peace

By our collective authority,
The Shield of Souls Assembly
